

Table of Contents

18 Important End of Life Issues You Want and Need To Know

- 1) Why Read This Guide? A Personal Story – p. 1
- 2) Your Concerns, Hope and Help – p. 4
- 3) Taking Control of Your Life and Health – p. 5
- 4) More to Life Than Being “Alive” – p. 6
- 5) Getting Your House in Order – p. 7
- 6) The “F” Factor – Family, Friends and Foes – p. 8
- 7) The Healing Balm of Forgiveness – p. 9
- 8) What’s All This “End of Life Stuff” About? It’s About YOU – p. 10
- 9) Advance Directive Choices: What Are They and What Do They Mean? – p. 11
- 10) Planning for Emergency Situations, Even For People Who Are Not Terminally Ill – p. 12
- 11) Five Important Things To Do – p. 13
- 12) Embracing Life... What Are My Comfort Care Options? – pp. 14, 15

(Continued...)

Table of Contents (cont'd)

- 13) Coping and Hoping – A Spiritual Journey – p. 16
- 14) When the Sun Sets Way Too Soon:
Non-elderly African-American Adults Planning
End-of-Life Care and Decisions – p. 17
- 15) Three Key Influences on African American
End-of-Life Decisions and Care – p. 18
- 16) Putting On Your Traveling Shoes:
Where to Go... Who to Talk to... – pp. 19, 20
- 17) Comforting Words... – p. 21
- 18) Your Legacy ... Your Life (A Time of Reflection/
A Time of Action) – p. 22

NOTE: No one can assume things about any ethnic group even though there are often general things shared in common. Everyone is an individual in their backgrounds, beliefs and values. Remember, there is a broad range of differences even within the African-American population.

→ Special Pull-out Forms: Health Care Directive/Durable Power of Attorney for Healthcare Decisions (See middle of this Guide.)